God continues to confirm His preaching and teaching gifting in Chris, providing numerous opportunities to minister from the pulpit over the last few months. - Praise God the promise keeper, for continuing to meet our needs however He sees fit!
- Praise God for not only allowing us to join Him in this ministry but for specifically calling us AND blessing our socks off in the process!
- Praise God for the many who have responded to the impact made by God's work in and through our family over the years, and who have come to a saving knowledge of Jesus.
- Please pray that we will be sensitive to HIS lead and design and HIS timing in ministry and life, all the while giving God the glory.
