The Canote Family is a gospel bluegrass, Jesus lovin', missionary family that hails from Clark, Missouri. With a combined total of 100 fingers and 100 toes, this family of 10 includes Chris (Dad), Susan (Mom), Samantha (20), Adam (18), Zachary aka "Chewy" (16), Alex (13), J.P. (10), Allison (5), Natalie (3), and Charlotte (1). The instruments featured include bass fiddle, guitar, mandolin, and banjo.

The Canotes also serve as Mission Mobilizers in their job as missionaries with YUGO Ministries (www.yugo.org), promoting missions and challenging others to join them on the mission field in their evangelism outreach ministry in Ciudad Acuña, Mexico.

Music has always been a big part of our lives. It's been said, "a family that prays together, stays together" and we do that. It also helps to "play together" so we do that too! Our music gives us a good reason to spend lots of time together. That's a good thing.

We have a great time making music and love to share it with others. Our desire is to serve and honor God as a family, using the gifts and talents He has graciously entrusted us with.

Our goal is to share the love and Good News of Jesus with a lost world by providing a living testimony to the eternal joy we have in Christ through our music and the lives we live.
