“Then Jesus said to his disciples, “If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.” ~ Matthew 16:24

Happy Summer from the Canote family!

It's another beautiful day in the universe and God has blessed each of us with another opportunity to serve Him. Rejoice! May God bless you this fine day that He has made! Also, SUMMER IS HERE, WOO HOO!

As of the deadline for this prayer letter, the stork has not yet arrived. So, look for some pictures in our July letter. However, by the time you actually receive this letter, he will likely have arrived. We have a scheduled c-section date of 12 noon, on Wednesday, June 13. To say we are “getting excited” about his impending arrival would be an understatement.

YUGO's missionary staff serving in Mexico are geared up for a busy summer of activity in several areas of ministry including house building, children's, sports, & women's ministry, etc. There is a ton of behind-the-scenes work which happens year-round as well.

Rod and Cheryl Hoople are missionaries from Canada serving in Tijuana, Mexico. They host Vision Trip visitors at El Faro as well as -conduct new missionary orientation and training. www.yugo.org

The Hooples also serve in a local women's prison leading a recovery and rehabilitation program while leading women to Christ.

thank you, Thank You, and THANK YOU!

We are so blessed to be part of this exciting ministry. And, we praise God for your very important role on our ministry team. Influencing a lost world all around us for the cause of Christ is significant kingdom work with eternal impact...and you are part of it! God bless you! YOUR sacrifice of time, prayer, and financial resources is significant and critical. Thank you for your investment in God's Kingdom!

God Bless You!
